

Kevin Briles, A.T.,C., CSCS, EMT-B

Kevin Briles has served as District Athletic Trainer and Assistant to the Athletic Director at the Delsea Regional School District since 2004. Previously, he served as Director of Athletic Training Services for Kessler Memorial Hospital for six years. Along with his duties at Delsea, Briles has served as an athletic trainer for the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association championships in swimming, indoor and outdoor track, and wrestling at the District, Region, and State tournament levels. Furthermore, he has also served as site manager for wrestling weight certification as a master weight assessor and as a member of the NJSIAA's Sports Medicine Advisory Committee. In addition to his secondary school responsibilities, he has served on athletic trainings staffs at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey and Atlantic Cape Community College, and serves as an adjunct clinical instructor/preceptor at Rowan University. Within the Athletic Trainers' Society of New Jersey, Briles currently serves as President and sits on the Secondary Schools Committee. In addition to being a member of The New Jersey Scholastic Coaches Association Hall of Fame, Briles, is the recipient of Gettysburg College's Romeo Capozzi Award, The New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association's Athletic Training Service Award, and The Gloucester County Police Chiefs Association's Civilian Service Award.

A 1997 graduate of Gettysburg College, Briles has been practicing as a licensed athletic trainer in New Jersey for 22 years. He currently resides in Glassboro, NJ, with his wife, Kim, their three children Liz, Kevin Jr., and Robert, and his sister-in-law, Jennifer.