| Statement of Effectiveness | QuadThink Education Network is an innovative, academic based program, which fosters 21st Century learning through the 3 C's Collaborate, Connect and Compete utilizing highly qualified teachers. QuadThink Education Network has modeled its program from research based on 21st Century learning from the Center for Innovative Education (CIE) at Kean University and Extralearning Online programs. QuadThink Education Network (QEN) will provide students with opportunities to have significant gains in literacy, and mathematical skills aligned with the newest NJCCCS. Students will increase their proficiency rates through rigorous small group instruction focusing on challenges evident in our SES pre-testing, school report grades, completed teacher-student forms, parent interviews and information from other stakeholders. QEN will further enhance student achievement using Individualized Student Plans developed through the technological Extralearning Online program. |

The effectiveness of our model is based on the uniqueness to connect learning games in conjunction with high quality digital instructional delivery improving students' academic success through critical thinking and immediate application of identified skills. As we move through the 21st Century, QEN is committed to having at-risk students become 21st Century thinkers and learners as our staff training will continually match the research based on advancements in education from the Kean University Center for Innovative Education (CIE). Previously, QuadThink Education Network with a collaborative partner Genesis School of Business, successfully under their banner assisted in preparing students to pass both 8th and 11th grade proficiency exams, college entrance exams as well as High School Equivalency Exams.

| Statement of Effectiveness | Spring Board Education Services offers a unique approach to student learning for K-12 students in Language Arts and Mathematics. Supported by research, we offer a powerful student-centered approach to teaching called strategy based instruction. This method of instruction supplies students with the same tools and techniques that efficient learners use to understand and learn new material or skills. Students will learn how to integrate new information with what they already know, in a way that makes sense. This method is effective for students with or without disabilities. All students can benefit from understanding the strategies that good learners use. The method of instruction is coupled with a customized curriculum plan for each student. We do not believe in a "one size fits all"; therefore, all participants are offered a tailored curriculum plan designed to meet their specific learning needs. This blend of instruction has been proven through scientific research to catapult student achievement in both Language Arts Literacy and Mathematics. |
